

2018 Spring Retreat

Cindy Collins

Cindy has been working with polymer clay for almost a decade. While it is not the only medium she works in, Cindy finds that she returns to it over and over again. Cindy's favorite things to make are cabochons. She loves sharing with others the things she's learned over the years and uses a very hands-on and interactive teaching style.